

Philosophy on the Farm

www.philosophyonthefarm.com

When: *Saturday July 17, 2010

Where: Braile Home Ranch:

3450 Velma Drive, Powder Springs, GA 30127

The Event: Philosophy on the Farm combines an evening of discovery on the innate world of animals with discovery and enrichment of the chiropractic philosophy. Come see a wide variety of animals including horses, chickens, ducks, rabbits, chinchillas, turtles and variety of tortoises including rare Galapagos tortoises and more. Learn from some of the most successful DCs in chiropractic, including the new ICA President, Dr Gary Walsemann. All are welcome, but we would like to know how many are planning to attend. If you would like to join us please email us at braile@braile.net so that we may have a head count. This event is FREE. Donations from Doctors of Chiropractic only will be accepted to defray costs.

Schedule:

- 6 PM Tours of animals with feeding demonstrations and possibly animal adjusting
- 8PM till 11 PM ? for Philosophy

Speakers:

- Dr Gary Walsemann, Dr DD Humber, Dr Sid Williams and special guest speakers.
- Philosophy speakers start at 8 PM

What to bring:

- Bring your own folding chairs, tables, picnic items and food
- Appropriate footwear recommended as we will be in a pasture
- Bug repellent recommended
- DO NOT BRING GLASS CONTAINERS

Animals:

- Horses: Tours and demonstrations will begin at 6 PM. Please do not feed horses unless accompanied by a member of Braile family. Horses can overeat and will get sick. Please visit the website for details on which animals you can feed and what.

Weather:

Could be an issue. We do not have a backup plan but bad weather could postpone event. Keep checking www.philosophyonthefarm.com for updates.

